

Osler Student Societies

Michael H. Malloy, M.D., M.S.
Assistant Dean for Osler Student Societies
November 6, 2010

Challenges Associated with Running the Societies

- Student participation
 - » Only about 10-15 actively participate in individual Society planning and activities .
- Faculty participation
 - » Despite honoraria there are really only a handful that are very active.
- Balancing student initiated events with faculty direction.
